

Meeting Minutes ODA July Workshop 7/22/17

Meeting of ODA called to order 9:35 a.m. By President Sharon Poorman with 11 members in attendance . Reports: Donna Alexander mentioned that Cheryl Blair, Peggy Morin and Pat Scribner had their masks on the show and tell table which they brought in from the June workshop project. It is noted that Mary Gensinger will not be teaching the August workshop. Pat Scribner will teach one of two designs on glass one being an acrylic and she had one example of an etching on glass. Donna showed Cheryl Blair's project for September: which is a box with an antique look. October : A make it take it class which will have ODA members teaching. Donna asked about thoughts on what to do for November workshop. Pat Scribner said she could do a Christmas ornament but, memory boxes were considered to be the best option.

Several ideas were discussed on advertising, perhaps face book would be an option. Cheryl Blair will look into doing a face book page. Posters put up at this site or in the local area. Pat Scribner suggested we check on displaying items at a local library to bring in new members. Pat and Donna will check with the local library. Margaret Fredrick also suggested a free flier or a local free magazine might be a good option for advertising. Ocala style was mentioned. Sharon Poorman said these were good ideas to gain new members.
