

ODA Meeting Oct. 27, 2018

Meeting was called to order by Pres. Barbara Barsel at 9:25am. The minutes for September were approved as posted by Pat Scribner and seconded by Georgia Lafferty. The Treasurers reports was Approved by Georgia Lafferty and seconded by Barbara Barsel.

Old Business-Margaret Fredrick reminded members that January 2019 seminar is with Cindy Makowski, painting on a turkey feather. Feb. 2019 is open, March 2019 we will be doing colored pencil again with Janelle Johnson, design to be determined. April thru November is yet to be determined.

Christmas Party – Pat S. reminded us to get our charger plate painted. They will be exchanged with someone else's plate at the party (bring a plate, take another one home). Bring an exchange gift valued at around $20.00. Bring a basket or painted item for the auction. The Christmas party will be at Ronnee's house, she will cater the lunch you do not have to bring food. Starts at 11am.

Birthday Raffle gifts – Your birthday raffle gift bag should be given to Pat at the January meeting, regardless of what month you were born in. This way she knows how many bags to make up each month. She will store them during the year.

Dues is due by Dec. 1, 2018. Please mail to Ronnee or bring to the November meeting with proof that you paid your national dues.

Current officers remain for another year. Georgia will officiate over the installation, to be installed at the Christmas party.

The November workshop will be taught by Ronnee Giannetta, painting a doll face on fabric.

New Business-Members discussed possible workshops for next year.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:40am, by motion made by Pat S. and seconded by Georgia L.

Respectfully submitted by Margaret Fredrick, substitute secretary.
